DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the Final Rejection, mailed 3/22/2007, applicant has submitted an Amendment After Final, entered 8/20/2007, canceling claims 5-10 and adding new independent claims 11-13, and arguing to overcome possible continuing rejection over Bernath, and under 35 USC 112-2.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, have been fully considered and are persuasive in indicating a substantial difference between the claimed invention and the method of the closest art, Bernath, and so have led to the vacating of the Final Rejection. There being no other prior art found, this has placed the application in condition for allowance, for reasons given next.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 11-13 are allowed over the prior art of record. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 11-13 are allowed because they recite inputting Chinese words by inputting a series of keys comprising a Chinese character key classifying the Chinese words to differentiate Chinese words having similar pronunciation, along with keys to indicate their pronunciation: alphabetical letter keys of English language, numerical keys from 0 to 9, and a plurality of miscellaneous symbolic and functional keys.

The closest art, Bernath, as also the other prior art systems of transliterating Chinese words, unlike the claimed invention, needs human intervention to resolve the ambiguity of what word was intended to be entered, due to Chinese words with the same transliterated pronunciation having different meanings, since said other systems only provide the pronunciation but do not also classify said Chinese words according to a semantic class.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
